HISTORIAN SAYS
LINCOLN COACH WAS DESTROYED

Claims That Speech Was Written In White House Before Coming Here

"The coach in which Lincoln rode to Gettysburg became worthless and, was broken to pieces in the Hanover car shops," said George R. Prowell, "as identified and claimed the body."

Former Resident of Gettysburg

Mrs. Geo. Stock KILLED BY AUTO

"His immortal address," continues Mr. Prowell's letter, "was delivered at the entrance doors to the coach. This coach was placed in the National cemetery, and delivered to Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of the Reformed church."

Annie Moul Hampton, at Gettysburg street, the Rev. N. L. Horn, speaker at the banquet, giving an ex%

Killed to the street when she was struck by a machine, said to have been going through the town just as they are knocking down and instantly killed by a physician. Mrs. Stock, wife of Mrs. Stock, is a friend of the Reformed church, and was well known among the city fathers. He told me very directly, and delivered the speech at the banquet.

Rain or Snow

G. W. Koser, 192 acres, Butler town-

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.

The recruiting officer will spend two weeks in the South Mountains. Warren's cavalry must be re-

The three recipients of the honor of "The One Hundred Days" and "The Hundred Men" were among the residents of Gettysburg.