

Mrs. S. A. Myers Is Dead at 93; Heard Lincoln

RECORD OF OTHER DEATHS

Mrs. Sarah A. Myers, who as a girl heard the cannonading at Gettysburg and the immortal address President Lincoln later delivered there, died Monday at her home in Moylan, near Philadelphia.

Mrs. Myers, who was 93, was the mother of Albert Cook Myers, the historian, and the widow of John T. Myers.

At the celebration of their sixtieth wedding anniversary in 1933, Mrs. Myers and her husband told friends they plainly remembered watching the Union army march into Gettysburg.

She was born July 9, 1844, at Cook's mill, one mile north of Bendersville, the youngest daughter of Jesse and Ruth (McMillan) Cook, and a bright member of Menallen Monthly Meeting or Friends or Quakers.

For nine years, from 1864 to 1874, she taught school in her native county, near Bendersville. In 1867 she attended Millersville Normal school, Lancaster county.

She was married, December 23, 1873, at New Chester, Adams county, to John T. Myers, and last December 23 they quietly celebrated their sixty-third wedding anniversary, at their Moylan home.

In the fall of 1863 she sat on the platform with President Lincoln at Gettysburg, shaking his hand on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers lived in York Springs from 1874 to 1888, where their four children were born. They later resided near Flora Dale, in Hillsburg, and in Kennett Square. They moved to Moylan in 1907.

The children surviving, in addition to Albert Cook Myers, are Miss E. Mae Myers, teacher, and Mrs. Edith Myers Dudenman, state welfare worker, of Harrisburg. Three grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held at Providence Friends Meeting house, Providence road, Media, Pa., at 3 p. m. Wednesday. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery.

George Deitch, auctioneer and former Carlisle councilman, died early Friday at his home, 134 North Pitt street, Carlisle, after an illness of two days. He was a member of borough council when the borough first proposed the purchase of the municipal owned water system nearly a decade ago.

Known widely throughout the rural districts, he formerly was engaged in farming at Bonnybrook. For the past two years he was district committeeman and inspector for the Cumberland County Agricultural Conservation association, a federal farm project. He was also a member of the county's board of viewers to fix damages on road and land improvements.

Deitch belonged to the Grace United Brethren church and Sunday school at Carlisle and these fraternal lodges, Independent Order of Americans, White Circle, Eagles, and the Plainfield Order of United American Mechanics.

A brother, Albert Deitch, of Gettysburg, is one of the survivors.

Mrs. Joshua T. Holliday, wife of Joshua T. Holliday, died Friday morning at 9:05 o'clock at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sourber, 504 Bagel avenue, Hanover. Death followed a prolonged illness. She was aged 60 years.

She was a life-long member of St. Matthew's Lutheran church and was interested in the work of the church. Surviving are her husband; one daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Sourber; one grandchild, Charles Sourber, Jr.; one brother, Walter E. Kuhn, until recently of Gettysburg, and one sister, Mrs. Alice McWilliams, Hanover.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon with services at the Sourber residence at 1 o'clock, with the Rev. Dr. Harry Hugh Beideman, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, officiating. Interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Mrs. Olive Mae Wolf, 31, wife of Joseph Wolf, died at her home in Frederick Thursday evening at 6:45 o'clock from a complication of diseases. She had been ill since last November and was bedfast the last four months.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kepner, Mt. Hope. She had lived in Frederick for a year, and previous to that had resided in Waynesboro. She was a member of the Brethren church of Waynesboro.

In addition to her husband and parents she is survived by two sons, Donald and Darrell, both at home; two sisters, Mrs. Howard Monaghan, New Cumberland; Mrs. Allen Curran, Mt. Hope; one brother, Carl Kepner, Mt. Hope.

Funeral services Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the Methodist church, Fairfield, conducted by the deceased's pastor, the Rev. Levi K. Ziegler, of Waynesboro. Burial in Union cemetery, Fairfield.

Mrs. Eva H. Douglas, 30, died July 23 at her home at Birch Run, Michigan. The deceased, a former resident of Emmitsburg, was a daughter of the late John and Serena (Reising) Hawk.

She was born in Adams county.

Mrs. Douglas also resided for a number of years in Frederick and from there moved to Michigan about seven years ago.

She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Luther Kugler and Mrs. Anna Montgomery, Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Margaret Haulshart, York.

Nary Bites Held
Funeral services for Harmon Hersh Nary, 93, native of Adams county, who died in Frederick, Maryland, last Wednesday, were held Sunday afternoon from the Bender funeral home, with the Rev. Royce Schaffer, of Littlestown, officiating. Interment was made in White church cemetery, along the Baltimore road.

The pallbearers were Oscar Dear-dorff, William Kunkle, George Walkman, Harry Hoke, Harry Heck and Harvey Felix.

Christopher Rosenberger
Christopher Rosenberger, 83, one of the oldest residents of Dillsburg, died Saturday at 6 p. m. at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberger. Death was caused by a complication of diseases, following an illness of four years.

Mr. Rosenberger, a retired farmer, was a member of the Blue Rock United Brethren church, near Quincey, Adams county.

Surviving are five sons, J. Andrew and Edward Rosenberger, Waynesboro; Jacob and William Rosenberger, New Cumberland, and Harry, with whom he resided; 35 grandchildren; 53 great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

William Henry Carbaugh
William Henry Carbaugh, Berlin Junction, New Oxford R. D., died Sunday morning in the Annie Warner hospital, here, from complications.

He was a son of John and Annastacia (Staub) Carbaugh. Surviving are ten children, Joseph, Francis and John Carbaugh, New Oxford; Mrs. Charles Shrader, William and Stan Carbaugh, Hanover; J. A. Carbaugh, Lancaster; Mrs. George Munchel, York; Sister Mary Ene-buis, Jenkintown; Sister Dorothy, Pottsville; 60 grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; one brother, John Carbaugh, York, and one sister, Sarah Carbaugh, Hanover.

He was a member of the Knights of St. George, New Oxford.

The body may be viewed at the W. A. Feiser funeral home, Carlisle street, Hanover, this evening, and at the late home at Berlin Junction Tuesday evening. Services will be held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the late home with further services at 9 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church, New Oxford. The Rev. D. P. Reardon, rector, will officiate. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery, New Oxford.

Vincent G. Stow, 87, died Sunday afternoon in York county.

He was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic church, York, as well as of the Carpenters' union.

He is survived by five sons and four daughters: Lewis, of Gettysburg; William and James, of Harrisburg; John, of Hanover; Jerry, of York; Mrs. Charles Lady, of Gettysburg; Mrs. Mary Peppers, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Annie Fitzkee, of Allentown, and Mrs. Rose Lehr, of York.

There are also a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Annie Stevens, of Hanover, surviving.

Funeral services for Eli C. Maseher, who died at his home, Ludlow avenue, York, early Saturday morning, will be held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. There will be brief services at the residence, followed by concluding services at Munnert's Meeting house, Adams county, having been born at Round Top, a son of the late Louis and Carrie (Little) Bushman.

For a number of years he operated a store at Round Top and later operated hotels at Hampton and Bonneauville.

Mr. Bushman was named for General Strong Vincent, who was wounded in the battle of Gettysburg on July 2 and died July 7, 1863. General Vincent was taken to the Bushman home after being wounded. When relatives claimed the body of General Vincent they heard of the birth of a son in the Bushman home and requested the baby be named after the deceased general.

Surviving are his wife, the former Miss Sarah Margaret Plank; one daughter, Mrs. O. P. Young, Baltimore, and one brother, Murray, South Dakota. A number of cousins, nephews and nieces survive in the family.

Mrs. Fred M. English
Mrs. Emma Fredica English, 70, wife of Frederick M. English, of Gettysburg, died at the Annie M. Warner hospital Thursday evening from a heart condition.

She had suffered with a heart ailment for 15 years and was admitted to the hospital in a serious condition Monday week.

She was a native of Gettysburg, a daughter of the late George F. and Anna Catherine (Zinn) Kalbfleisch, of Germany.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Frederick Lyman English, Carney's Point, New Jersey; one brother, W. H. Kalbfleisch, Gettysburg; two sisters, Miss Eleanor Kalbfleisch, Gettysburg; Mrs. Katharine Dilthey, New York city.

A sister, Miss Louise Elizabeth Kalbfleisch, died March 25.
Private funeral services from the H. B. Bender and son funeral home, in Gettysburg, Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock conducted by the Rev. Dr. Herbert C. Alleman.

The body was cremated and the ashes will be interred in Evergreen cemetery later.

Mrs. George E. Stover
Mrs. Mabel Irene Stover, 47, wife of George E. Stover, of Gettysburg, died in the Annie M. Warner hospital Monday evening at 7:25 o'clock from complications.

In failing health during the last year, Mrs. Stover's condition became more serious several weeks ago. She was admitted to the hospital last Tuesday and submitted to an operation on Friday.

Born in Harney, Maryland, the daughter of the late John T. Ohler and Mary E. (Weigand) Ohler, Mrs. Stover resided there until 32 years ago when she went to live in Gettysburg.

She was a member of St. James Lutheran church.

Surviving are her husband; one son, George Ernest Stover, Jr., at home, and three brothers, C. E. Ohler, York, and John I. and Ernest B. Ohler, both of Gettysburg.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Evelyn E. Jackson
Mrs. Evelyn Elizabeth Jackson, 53, colored widow of Upton Jackson, died from complications at 7 o'clock this morning in the Annie M. Warner hospital. She had been in ill health for a year and her condition became more serious during the last month. She was admitted to the hospital on Saturday.

Mrs. Jackson was born in Gettysburg, a daughter of the late Richard H. Monroe and Eliza (Jones) Monroe. She lived her entire life there.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Albert Robinson, Frederick, Maryland, and Mrs. Rebecca Coleman, Gettysburg, and two brothers, William Monroe, Pittsburgh, and Lawrence Monroe, Gettysburg.

Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Bender's funeral home, Carlisle street, with the Rev. P. A. Lusan, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church, officiating.

Mrs. Katie K. Withrow
Mrs. Katie K. Withrow, 72, a former teacher in the Gettysburg schools and widow of Joseph Withrow, died Saturday morning at the Lankenau hospital in Philadelphia from complications. She had been a patient in the hospital since the latter part of June.

She was a daughter of Abraham Keckler, of Adams county.

Mrs. Withrow taught in the Granite school and then went to Harrisburg, where she held positions in the colored schools and other grades in the borough.

She left Gettysburg about twenty years ago to assume a teaching position in the Lansdale schools. She retired from teaching about four years ago.

After retiring, Mrs. Withrow took up her residence in West Chester and resided there until about a month ago, when she moved to Philadelphia.

She was a member of the Lutheran church in West Chester.

The pallbearers were William Durbaraw, Samuel Keckler, Clarence Keckler, Ralph Keckler, Burton Withrow and Glenn Withrow.

Lieutenant Henry M. Schorr
Lieutenant Harry M. Schorr, 31, located at Gettysburg since the fall of 1935 as medical supervisor of sub-district No. 8 of the CCC, died Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Walter Reed general hospital in Washington, D. C.

Doctor Schorr had been admitted to the hospital two weeks ago and had submitted to an operation last Friday.

A native of New York city, he was a graduate of Cornell university and of the Bellevue hospital medical school of New York in 1931.

In September, 1934, he was commissioned as an officer in the medical corps of the United States army and was assigned to duty with the CCC.

He had been stationed at Millersburg and New Cumberland before going to Gettysburg nearly two years ago.

Doctor Schorr, his wife, Grace, and their daughter, Ruth, who survive him, resided in the Tipton apartments, Gettysburg.

John William Harbold
John William Harbold, 83, died at the home of his son, Eldsworth Harbold, at Bermudian, Saturday morning from a heart attack. Mr. Harbold had been suffering from a heart condition for several years, but his death was unexpected.

He was a member of the Lathmore Church of the Brethren and had followed the occupation of farming all his life.

Mr. Harbold was a son of the late John and Mary (Grove) Harbold and had always resided in lower Adams county.

Surviving are two sons, Ellsworth Harbold, Bermudian, with whom he had lived the last 29 years, and Harry M. Harbold, Glendale, California, and one grandson.

Clara Ellen Fair
Clara Ellen Fair, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fair, Gaidners R. 2, died Wednesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock at the home of her parents, from a complication of diseases. She had been ill for three years and confined to bed for two days.

Surviving are her parents, Edgar and Lillian (Stamer) Fair, and these brothers and sisters: Harry, Edna Group, Gardner R. 2; Harry, Orrie, Edith, Kenneth and Clair, all at home, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fair, Bendersville, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stamer, Stamer's Station.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bousong funeral parlors at Bendersville with the Rev. George Snyder, pastor of the Mt. Taber United Brethren church, officiating. Interment in the Bendersville cemetery.

The Mitchell home was decorated with gladioli and palms for the ceremony.

Lightning Hits Barn; Starts $15,000 Blaze
The large brick barn on the farm of Harvey E. Miller, Emmitsburg dayman, located about a mile southeast of Emmitsburg, was destroyed by fire when struck by lightning at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon as a thunderstorm accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain passed over that section.

Loss was estimated by Mr. Miller at $15,000, partly covered by insurance. The insurance policy had been renewed on the Saturday previous to the fire.

Mr. Miller was away from his farm when the bolt struck and he did not return until about 4 o'clock. Mrs. Miller sent a telephone call to Emmitsburg for the fire company. Both trucks of the department responded, but could render little aid except to smaller buildings close to the barn.

A 40-foot shed at the east end of the barn was burned to the ground. Also consumed by the fire were 15 bushels of barley and about the same quantity of oats; a hay loader, manure spreader and wagon, all good as new; about 25 tons of baled straw and an equal amount of hay. Twenty barrels of cement stored in the barn were damaged.

The farm has all electrical conveniences, the power being supplied by a home-owned plant. The electric milkers, clippers and an electric control fence were burned.

A wooden silo adjoining the barn was completely destroyed and a cement silo next to it was somewhat damaged.

The barn 50 by 80 feet, had been re-painted several months ago. Two years ago the brickwork was re-painted and an improvement made in the front of the building.

This year's crop of threshed wheat was stored in a building about 50 feet from the barn and was not damaged.

Two Drivers Are Arrested
Charged with traffic law violations, two motorists were arrested in Gettysburg Tuesday by borough police who took the offenders before local justices of the peace where fines were imposed.

Leroy P. Bayer, Trenton, New Jersey, was charged by Officer Charles W. Culp with driving at a greater speed on York street than was proper under existing conditions. Bayer paid Justice John H. Bashore a fine of $10 and the costs.

Luther W. McCoy, Bolling Springs, was charged by Special Officer Glenn Guise with passing another car at the intersection of Carlisle and Stevens streets. Justice John C. Shearer levied a fine of $10 and ordered McCoy to pay costs of $2.25. Unable to comply, McCoy left a new tire and wheel with the justice as security for the sum which he promised he would appear and pay later in the week.

Two Stunned By Lightning
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vaughn, Gettysburg R. 3, were stunned about 4 o'clock Friday afternoon when a bolt of lightning struck their house. They felt no lasting ill effects of the shock.

The bolt tore out a window on the second floor of the house, ran down through the floor into the kitchen and tore a hole in the kitchen floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were sitting in the kitchen when the bolt struck.

Sons of Veterans Improving Home
The local Sons of Veterans' camp, No. 112, met Friday evening in the post rooms on East Middle street and elected two new members. Improvements being made to the post rooms were discussed by the 25 members present. Repairs to the interior of the building include repainting and re-plastering. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Virginia Mitchell Bride Of College Graduate Here

Miss Virginia Marie Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Mitchell, center square, and Russell Marsh Houghton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Houghton, Clarksville, were married Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the bride's home.

The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thadlow Null of Harney, an Episcopalian. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Irvin L. Houghton, Monroe, Michigan, was best man and Miss Janet E. Houghton attended the bride. They are brother and sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Peggy Zinn, of Gettysburg, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me." She was accompanied by Miss Eva Sachs, also of Gettysburg.

The bride wore a dress of white lace and a Juliet cap. She carried white roses and pink sweetheart roses. Miss Houghton was attired in peach lace dress with rust accessories.

After graduating from Sharon high school in 1930, Mr. Houghton entered Gettysburg college where he took an active part in athletics. He received his college degree in 1934. At present he is a chemist with the Catalin corporation at Fords, New Jersey.

Following the ceremony the newlyweds left on a week's trip to Atlantic city, after which they will take up housekeeping at 315 Woodbridge avenue, Metuchen, New Jersey.

Guests from Detroit, Fairmont, West Virginia; Clarksville, Monroe, Michigan, and Gettysburg attended the wedding.

COLLEGE GRADUATE MARRIED IN MAINE
Miss Jean Stewart Ogden, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Ogden, Brooklyn, became the bride of Dayton McCue Kohler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin D. Kohler, of Wornleysburg, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at a wedding ceremony in the garden of the Ogden's summer home, Douglas Hill, Maine.

Mr. Kohler is a graduate of Gettysburg college and is a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity. At present he is professor of English at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, Virginia, where they will reside.

ARCH K. JEAN WEDS IN NEW MEXICO
Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Barbara Lee Benson, Phoenix, Arizona, to Arch K. Jean, of Gallup, New Mexico, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Jean, of Harrisburg. The ceremony was performed July 9 in Gallup.

Mr. Jean graduated from Gettysburg college and is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Teacher Weds in New Oxford
Miss Sarah Alma Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Myers, of New Oxford, and Gilbert Theodore Saetre, of Natchitoches, Louisiana, were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the New Oxford Lutheran church by the pastor, the Rev. George E. Sheffer.

Mrs. Saetre has been a teacher of English and music in the New Oxford schools. Mr. Saetre is a college professor.

RECENT GRADUATE WEDS
Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Leona C. Williams, daughter of Mrs. Grace Williams, Red Lion, and C. Clinton Ruby, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ruby, Heliang. The ceremony was performed at Altoona July 31. Mr. Ruby graduated from Gettysburg college in 1934.

Weikert-Smith
Miss Edith Pauline Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Granite Station, and Donald William Weikert, son of Mrs. Grant Weikert, Gettysburg R. 1, were united in marriage Saturday morning at 10:45 o'clock at Williamsport, Maryland, by the Rev. W. M. Beattie, pastor of the United Brethren church.

The Rev. Mr. Beattie was formerly pastor of the Salem United Brethren church.

Mrs. Weikert was attired in a blue and white outfit. She is employed at a Gettysburg shirt factory. Weikert is employed at the Bur-goon and Yingling canning company.

Deardorf-Bhaker
Miss Agnes Ophelia Rinker, youngest daughter of Mrs. Emma Rinker, east of Gettysburg, and Floyd Wilmer Deardorf, oldest son of Mrs. Clara V. Deardorf, Gettysburg R. 2, were married Thursday, August 5, at 1:30 a. m. at Toms Brook, Virginia.

The single ring ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed by the Rev. Ross O. Louthan in the Methodist parsonage.

The bride was attired in blue

Three Drivers Charged After Trio of Crashes

Officers from the local substation of the state motor police investigated three automobile accidents Saturday and Sunday and laid charges against three of the drivers involved.

No one was hurt in the crashes. Damages to the vehicles amounted to about $265.

Parked Truck In Collision
A charge of reckless driving is to be filed by a Pennsylvania motor police officer from the local substation as a result of an automobile accident near Zora on the Waynesboro road, shortly before midnight Saturday. No one was injured in the collision.

George E. Morgenstern, 40, Bradford, driver of one of the cars involved in the accident is to face the code violation charge. Joseph A. Scott, Fairfield, was at the wheel of the other machine, a truck which was parked on the edge of the roadway. The Bradford man was driving west and struck the rear of the parked vehicle.

Morgenstern's car had to be towed from the scene of the collision, having suffered damage estimated at about $150. Damage to the Scott truck did not exceed $5.

The reckless driving charge is to be filed before Justice of the Peace George W. Naugle, Hamiltonban township, by Officer J. P. Monaghan who investigated the accident.

Bee in Auto Causes Crash
A bee that flew into the car of Henry E. Vincent, 20, Gettysburg R. 4, Sunday afternoon as Vincent drove toward Gettysburg on the Lincoln highway, two and a half miles west of here, so distracted the attention of the driver that he allowed his car to swerve to the left where it sideswiped an eastbound car.

Vincent's attempt to kill the insect while he drove his car may cost him $12.50 on a charge of failing to yield half the highway to oncoming traffic in addition to the $35 damage which his car suffered in the collision.

The other machine operated by John B. McKibben, 53, Tarentum, Pa., was damaged to the extent of about $50. Both cars had to be towed to Gettysburg.

No one in either car was injured. The charge will be filed before Justice of the Peace Charles F. Redding, Cumberland township, by Officer George S. Harrieman, of the local motor police substation.

Passed Parked Autos, Crashes
A driver was charged with reckless driving after an accident on the Lincoln highway about a mile east of McKnightstown Saturday afternoon at 4:10 o'clock.

The accident occurred when J. S. Booth, of Nendham, New Jersey, traveling east, had started to pass a line of cars that were parked behind a stalled automobile.

In the act of passing, Booth's car hit that of Fred Krushensky, of McKeesport, who was driving west. No one was hurt in the collision and the damage was slight, being estimated at about $10 to the Krushensky machine and $15 to the Booth car.

Officer Glenn F. Henry, of the local motor police substation, investigated the crash and laid a charge of reckless driving against Booth before Justice of the Peace T. C. Goss, of McKnightstown. Booth paid a fine of $10 and costs.

Bus Terminal Nearly Ready
Nicholas Mellgakes, who will become local representative of the Greyhound and Blue Ridge bus lines, with the opening of the new union bus terminal in the National garage annex on North Washington street, announced Tuesday he expects the new restaurant and waiting rooms to be complete and ready for use next week.

Three double counters are being placed on the south side of the large restaurant room which fronts on Washington street. A number of booths will be placed in the same room bringing the total dining capacity to 79 persons.

Booths and other woodwork are finished in walnut.

Pays Fines on Two Charges
Orin D. Carpenter, of Pittsburgh, was arrested on two charges by an officer of the local motor police substation Friday. He paid fines of $10 and costs in each case before Justice of the Peace C. F. Redding, Cumberland township.

Carpenter was nabbed for speeding at 72 miles an hour, and for improper passing while approaching the crest of a grade.

Girl, 11, Fractures Arm in Fall Off Wagon
Ethel Patty Geisey, aged 11 years, Emmitsburg, was brought to the Annie M. Warner hospital Saturday afternoon suffering from a fracture of the right arm and chest injuries which she suffered when she tumbled from an express wagon she was riding on an Emmitsburg street.

After being treated by an Emmitsburg physician, the child was taken to the hospital here where she remained as a patient until Sunday.

Countian's Arm Pierced by Fork

Ellis Aik, Biglerville, an employe of the C. H. Musselman company, was treated at the Annie M. Warner hospital Wednesday morning for an injury to his left arm.

All was injured while loading manure this morning at a farm near Biglerville when a fellow workman accidentally thrust a prong of a fork through his arm. He was allowed to go to his home after receiving treatment.

$202 Balance In Liberty Twp. School Account

The annual audit of the finances of the Liberty township school district was placed on file Tuesday at the office of Prothonotary C. Arthur Brame at the court house, revealing that the district closed the fiscal year with a balance of $202.40, while temporary loans of $1,450 remain outstanding.

The directors levied a 15-mill tax on real estate last year that had an assessed valuation of $244,583, and taxed each resident $3 as a per capita levy. The amount to be collected on the face of the tax duplicate was $4,739.54 and the tax collector turned over $3,739.52 of that sum.

Receipts totaled $7,887.76, with a state appropriation of $2,960 included. Other receipts were from collections of current and delinquent taxes. Expenses totaled 7,685.36, with instructional costs forming the largest part of that amount. Teachers' salaries are given at $4,000, while the district paid $1,457.11 in tuition to other districts.

The auditors' report is signed by Charles F. Weaver, A. M. Sites and C. L. Sowers.

Hospital Has Busy Week-End

A busy week-end was experienced at the Annie M. Warner hospital, with nearly a score of persons being either admitted or discharged, in addition to more than a half dozen accident patients who went to the institution for treatment without being admitted as patients.

Monday morning Merl Culp, Biglerville, was reported to be resting comfortably after submitting to an emergency operation for acute appendicitis. He was admitted Sunday. Mrs. Lucy Black, Biglerville, also was admitted Monday.

Four tonsil operations were performed Monday morning at the hospital. Those who had their tonsils removed today were Richard Swope, Gettysburg R. 2; James Orner, Cash-town; Mary Devlin, Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Wilmer Roth, Gettysburg.

Persons discharged over the week-end included Leo Conley, Pittsburgh national guardsman who had been a patient there for about 10 days suffering from concussion which he received when an army truck overturned near here while returning from Indian-town Gap to Pittsburgh; John William Sites, Fairfield; Mrs. Ryland Garretson, Bendersville; Mrs. Leroy H. Carbaugh and son Jackie Lee, Greentown; Mrs. Melvin Leatherman and son, Henry Richard, Gettysburg R. 2; Mrs. Raymond Schoffstall and son, Lynn Raymond, Gardner, and William Kearns, Gettysburg R. 4.

Pair Drove Too Fast in Borough

Special Borough Officer Glenn L. Guise made two arrests in Gettysburg early Monday morning and charged the drivers with driving at