Democratic Society.

The Globe Hotel parlors were again crowded on Wednesday evening with members of the Democratic Society of Gettysburg and vicinity, Vice President J. L. Butt, Esq., in the chair. Secretary J. L. Williams, Esq., read the minutes of last meeting, which were approved.

S. S. Neely, Esq., chairman of committee on Constitution and By-Laws, offered a report, which was adopted and the committee discharged with thanks of the Society.

The first eight articles provide for the usual duties of the officers and Executive Committee. Article 9 provides that any person 18 years of age who makes application to the Society in the manner provided in the By-Laws may become a member. Article 10, relates to quorum and the following three articles make provision in case of death, removal or disability of officers and expulsion of members.

ART. XV.—This Society shall not, as an organization, be used to further the interests of any candidate for nomination for any county, township or municipal office; nor shall indorse any candidate for nomination for any Congressional, Legislative or Senatorial office. But nothing in this article shall be construed to abridge in any manner the rights of the members of this Society individually to support any candidate for nomination.

Section III of the By-Laws in regard to membership is as follows:

Any person desiring to become a member of this Society, shall, before his name is presented to the Society, sign the following application and file it with the Secretary: "I the undersigned, being desirous to become a member of the Democratic Society of Gettysburg and vicinity, do declare that I am a Democrat in principle and from honest conviction and that I intend actively to cooperate with the Democratic party in Federal, State or local affairs, and that, if I am elected a member of this Society, I will faithfully and honestly discharge the duties incident to such membership.'"

The Secretary is required to keep blanks on hand and furnish them on application.

C. S. Duncan, Esq., chairman of committee of Finances, reported progress made by his committee. F. M. Timmins, Esq., chairman of committee on location, reported in favor of Mayer's Hall. On motion report adopted and committee discharged.

Hon. W. T. Ziegler explained in a very interesting and entertaining manner the method of voting under the new Ballot Law.

The President appointed as the Executive Committee: Geo. L. H. Grammer, Esq., Hon. W. T. Ziegler and Mr. E. M. Bender.

The officers of the Society are, ex officio members of this committee. Society adjourned to meet Friday evening in Mayer's Hall, at 7 30. The Hall will be open day and evening from now until at least the close of the campaign. The Society will be provided with all campaign literature, newspapers, etc. All Democrats are cordially invited to call.

The following is a list of newspapers selected by the Executive Committee for use of Democratic Society of Gettysburg and vicinity: New York Times, World, Sun, Philadelphia Times and Record, Puck, GETTYSBURG COMPILER, Atlanta Constitution, Harpers Weekly and Chicago Herald.

Reading Democratic Club.

The Democratic Club of Reading township met at their headquarters in Fickes' Hall on Saturday evening, the meeting called to order by the chairman, S. Miley Miller, Esq.

Chas E. Stahle, Esq., of Gettysburg, was introduced as the first speaker of the evening, and held the close attention of the audience for some time talking on Tariff reform explaining how the millionaires are accumulating their wealth through the tax on the necessaries of life consumed by the farmers and laborers. Hon. W. T. Ziegler was next introduced and entertained the Club for one and a half hours explaining very clearly the new mode of voting at the coming election, also gave a talk on pensions showing that Grover Cleveland is a friend of the soldier, (the name of Cleveland caused continued cheering) and that the Democrats never tried to cut down an appropriation for pensions. Meeting closed with three cheers for the speakers of the evening.

I. H. HUECHST, Sec.

EMMITSBURG PASTORS.—Rev. Charles Reinewald has, we understand, accepted the call to the Lutheran church at Emmitsburg

Golden Wedding.

"Granite Hall," the spacious and handsome residence of Mr. Samuel M. Bushman, Cashier of the First National Bank of Gettysburg, on the Baltimore pike, was the scene of a pleasant social gathering on Sunday afternoon, it being the golden anniversery of the marriage of his parents, who reside with him. Fifty years ago, in the parlor of the writer's residence, 312 Baltimore street, Mr. Emanuel Bushman and Miss Catharine Hoffman, the happy and respected couple in whose honor the day's company was given, were married by Rev. Father Daugherty. They have since resided in Gettysburg, filling their places in the community in a modest kindly way which won for them a host of friends who join in congratulations on this event.

At one o'clock the company present, with but few exceptions near relatives, were called to dinner. Two large tables testefully decorated with golden-rod bore a load of substantials and delicacies well calculated to delight the most fastidious appetite and it need hardly be said ample justice was done the toothsome viands, after which Prof. M. F. Power, Rev. M. Bushman and T. J. Stahle expressed the good wishes of the company. The spacious verandahs and handsome yards were occupied for several hours in social converse, after which the company broke up with sincere wishes for the long continued health and happiness of the aged couple and appreciation of the hospitable entertainment. A number of handsome and costly presents were given as souvenirs of the happy occasion, long to be remembered by all present.

The company was composed of the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. John Bushman and son Joseph, Mr. Samuel M. Bushman, Mr. Morris Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. William Bushman and five children, Mr. Joseph M. Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Stock and three children, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Power and three children, Miss Annie J. Bushman, Mr. John Bushman and daughter Miss Maria, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. David Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. Levi E. Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Topper, Misses Vinie and Lizzie Wenrick, Mrs. Lillian Point and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Althedore Bushman and daughter, Miss Mary, Mrs. Rev. W. J. Beamer and daughter, Miss Alice, Mr. J. L. Schick, Mr. J. Elmer Musselman, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stahle.

Death of a Respected Citizen.

J. Geo. Wolf died last Wednesday, the 7th inst., from the stroke of apoplexy which we referred to two weeks ago. He was a native of the county, being born in Berwick township, on the 1st day of April, 1821. Before he had grown to manhood he taught one of the first schools in that township under the present school system. He was twice married, his first wife having died since his residence in this place, about the year 1875. Although a Republican at the time, the Democrats of Berwick township nominated and elected him a Justice of the Peace in 1865, which office he held till his removal to Gettysburg in 1871. Three years thereafter he was appointed a councilman and served in the same capacity in 1886, 1887 and 1888. He was a public spirited citizen, having been a director of the canning factory and hosiery mills, and connected with other local institutions. He was a successful business man, having from a small beginning, as a dealer in farm produce, built up a large business as a grain dealer, a coal and lumber merchant. He had a fine judgment and excellent memory. Of strict integrity he soon won the confidence of his patrons. He was also a leader in the St. James Lutheran Church and in the Sunday-school connected therewith. He leaves a wife, one daughter, Mrs. J. Geo. Weaver, and seven sons: Edw. M. and David M., in business with him here; Chas. M., Esq., of Hanover; Rev. J. B., of Glen Rock; Howard M., of York; Rev. L. B., of Guntoor, India; Prof. S. A., of Dallas, N. C.

His remains were interred in Evergreen Cemetery on Saturday afternoon, attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

From Fairfield.

Within a few days there has been more property sold in town, than at any other period of the same length, in the history of Fairfield.

Latimer S. Myers has sold his property to Aaron Musselman, price $1 600. He has also sold his confectionary and fixtures to Jas. H. Cunningham.

Warner H. McCreary has sold his house and lot to Dr. J. E. Green, price $1 550.

John T. Barton, of Fountaindale, has sold his property in town to Philip Brown, price $1,575.

John Manberz, of Liberty township, has purchased the W. D. Kugler property, price $1,200

Wilson Hummelbaugh has sold his property to Geo. F. Sanders, price $810.

Amos and Mervin Stonesifer have bought a lot at the crossing of the Railroad and the public road to Nary's mill, and are busy at work putting up a house for business purposes.

Wm. G Stonesifer has bought a lot from Henry Cluck, adjoining Orrtanna, and expects to have a dwelling ready for occupancy by the first of April.

Albert Kready has bought a lot in Orrtanna from John Hartman, and has a dwelling house already under roof.

The M. E. Congregation at Chamberlain's have resolved to rebuild their church, and also to remove it to a better location, and with that end in view have purchased a lot from Jacob Hostetter and others. This farm is along the line of the B. & M. Division of the W. M. R. R. There are valuable Limestone Quarries on the farm, with lime kilns and railroad sidings for loading lime, &c. There is an inexhaustible of good water on the place. The improvements are a new 2-story BRICK DWELLING, conveniently arranged, a large new Bank Barn, Wagon Shed and all necessary out-building. Also 2 Tenant Houses, in good repair, with necessary out-buildings for same. This is one of the choice farms of this section of the county. ON THURSDAY, SEPT. 22d, 1892, at 1 p. m., on the premises, in Hamilton township, Adams county, Pa.

Emmert Hartzell has improved his property by putting up a neat iron fence along the front.

The School Directors are having the houses repaired and cleaned up ready for school on the 3d of October. They have had room No. 1 whitewashed, which adds very much to the appearance, and we hope it will also add to the comfort of the pupils on a cold day. They expect to furnish and use the room of Robert Watson, Sr., now occupied by Jesse Buffington as a harness maker shop for the primary department. S.

A JOINT convention of the P. O. S. of A., Jr. O. U. A. M., and O. U. A. M., will be held in Harrisburg on Friday, October 21 1892. Each camp and council of the above named orders in the counties of Dauphin Lebanon, Perry, Cumberland, York and Adams is entitled to five delegates in the convention.
